Navigate the remote world across cultures

- + Cultural differences are complex and nuanced.
Oversimplified, limiting examples are too common in media
- + We should acknowledge and even celebrate cultural complexity. It's not a problem to be solved
- + When we learn to navigate cultural complexity in the digital world we can create an oasis for creative people where better ideas are generated

BUT HOW?!

Blueprints and maps help people navigate

Get a liaison / ops person

- + Drive: get motivated to make that online oasis
- + Awareness: increase your cultural intelligence by paying attention to every interaction
- + Action: Strategize and plan a change in verbal and non verbal behaviours
- + Get comfortable with ambiguity, get a sense of humour
- + Blueprints and maps to help people navigate
- + An ops person who provides a space to discuss issues

Cultural complexity is not a problem to be solved but a beautiful world we need to learn how to navigate

Become a bridge person by learning more with every cultural interaction
